This is one of the best times to invest in LearnDash, especially if you're serious about building a profitable online course business without ongoing commission cuts or platform restrictions.

About LearnDash

LearnDash is the most powerful and flexible learning management system (LMS) plugin for WordPress, designed specifically for course creators, educators, training companies, and entrepreneurs who want complete control over their online learning business.

Unlike hosted platforms that take a percentage of your earnings, LearnDash lets you own your revenue entirely—you keep 100% of what you make.

What makes LearnDash stand out? It's the perfect combination of simplicity and sophistication.

The drag-and-drop course builder means you can create professional courses without touching a single line of code, whilst advanced features like drip-fed content, gamification (badges, certificates, leaderboards), and comprehensive quiz systems give you everything needed to deliver engaging learning experiences.

Who is LearnDash for?

- Course creators selling knowledge online
- Corporate trainers building internal training programmes
- Educational institutions offering certification courses
- Membership site owners providing exclusive learning content
- Coaches and consultants packaging their expertise

With seamless integrations for Stripe, PayPal, WooCommerce, Mailchimp, Zoom, and more, LearnDash connects effortlessly with the tools you already use.

Plus, it's fully mobile-responsive and supports multiple languages, making your courses accessible to students anywhere in the world.

Why This Black Friday Sale Is Worth It 💎

Let's be honest—a 30% discount on LearnDash is massive. This isn't just a token markdown; it's a genuine opportunity to save serious money on premium e-learning infrastructure.

Here's what the savings look like:

- 1 Site Plan: Regular price $199/year → Sale price $139.30/year (save $59.70!)
- 10 Sites Plan: Regular price $399/year → Sale price $279.30/year (save $119.70!)
- Unlimited Sites Plan: Regular price $799/year → Sale price $559.30/year (save $239.70!)

And it doesn't stop there—the 30% discount applies to all add-ons and bundles too. For instance, the Ultimate Course Creator Bundle (normally $499/year for 1 site) drops to approximately $349.30/year. That's hundreds of pounds in savings on tools that can genuinely transform your course delivery.

What makes this year's LearnDash Black Friday Deal 2025 particularly special is the timing. With online education continuing to boom and more people looking for side income streams, there's never been a better moment to establish your presence in the e-learning space.

Getting LearnDash at this discounted rate means you can reinvest those savings into marketing, content creation, or simply improving your course quality.

I've seen plenty of Black Friday deals over the years, but when it comes to course platforms that don't nickel-and-dime you with transaction fees or revenue sharing, LearnDash's approach is refreshingly straightforward—and this 30% off makes it even better value.
